

Triodos Bank.

Application for a Triodos Current Account with a Power of Attorney

Once we receive the fully completed form and supporting documents, we will begin to open the account and set up the Power of Attorney. Please note we cannot open the account or register an attorney on the account until we have received the required documents completed in full.

How to complete this form

The form can be completed either by printing a blank copy and filling in the required sections, or by filling in the sections online and then printing the form. The declaration at the end of the form must be signed with an original "wet ink" signature and dated by the attorney.

Supporting documents

To register a Power of Attorney with us, we also must receive: The original or a certified copy of the Power of Attorney document or Lasting Power of Attorney access code

How to send us the required documents

You may prefer to send original or certified documents by recorded or tracked delivery to ensure they don't get lost in the post. But be aware, most delivery companies will charge for this service.

Write our full address exactly as shown below on your envelope (appropriate stamp required):

Triodos Bank
Deanery Road
Bristol
BS1 5AS

Alternatively, you can send the required documents by using our freepost address – write it exactly as shown below on your envelope (no stamp required):

Freepost TRIODOS BANK
