

Triodos Bank. Personal data rights request form.

You have certain rights under the provision of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) over the personal information we hold and how we process or store your data. You can use this form to make a request regarding your data. Once completed, please send the signed form to: Triodos Bank, Deanery Road, Bristol, BS1 5AS.

You may find that many of the questions you have about how your personal data are used by Triodos, and how long it is kept for, will be answered by the Triodos Bank Privacy Statement.

As the request is related to personal data we will require proof of your identity to make sure that the request is valid. We will use reasonable means to verify the identity of the person making the request.

We will act upon your request within one month of:

- all our requirements for confirming identity and verifying your entitlement to exercise your rights under the GDPR and receive any requested data have been satisfied;
- establishing what is required in order to respond to your request.

This period may be extended where requests are complex or numerous. In this case we will inform you before the end of the one-month deadline and explain why the extension is necessary.

In most cases a fee will not apply. However, we have the right to charge a reasonable fee where a request is manifestly unfounded or excessive, particularly if it is repetitive. Any fee would be based on the administrative cost of complying with your request and you would be advised of this before we continued with your request.
